ORDER :-

Government have constituted Four Members Committee under the Chairmanship of the Commissioner of Collegiate Education and make suitable recommendations for the un-interrupted functioning of Oriental Colleges. The Committee submitted its report to the Government. The Committee has finally concluded that the academic issues pertaining to Oriental Colleges need to be studied in further detail by experts, so as to evolve long-term plans for development. The Committee inter-alia has recommended that the Oriental Colleges in the State are affiliated to different Universities. The Oriental Colleges offered courses designed to meet specific educational needs, which do not match with that of the main stream courses offered by the Universities. Therefore, transfer of 8 Oriental Colleges, teaching Sanskrit to Sri Venkateswara Vedic University, Tirupati may improve functional efficiency, as the University has been established with the sole objective of offering similar courses. Sri Venkateswara Vedic University, Tirupati, in its 8th Executive Council meeting held on 08-05-2010 have resolved to take over the Sanskrit Colleges, subject to sanction of sufficient annual block grant for their maintenance and development from the Government.

2. The Vice Chancellor, Sri Venkateswara Vedic University, Tirupathi in his letter 2nd read above while explaining the circumstances has finally requested the Government to permitting the Colleges to fill up the sanctioned posts but vacant positions and issue orders in the matter.

3. The Commissioner of Collegiate Education, A.P., Hyderabad in his letter 3rd read above has submitted the proposals for consideration of the Government on the following:-

- (a) Andhra University, Visakapatnam, Osmania University, Hyderabad, Acharya Nagarjuna University, Guntur and Sri Venkateswara University, Tirupati will accord permission for affiliation of Sanskrit Courses run by the above said colleges from the academic year 2011-12. The rest of the courses will remain as it is. The students undergoing studies in 2nd and 3rd year course in the colleges continue to be affiliated to the respective Universities, under which they are presently functioning till the completion of their course.

(b) The courses will be supervised by the Sri Venkateswara Vedic University, Tirupati in so far as the academic aspect is concerned, such as admissions, restructuring and implementation of syllabus, teaching and evaluation, awarding of Degree certificates, after affiliation from the academic year 2011-12.

© The release of Grant-in-aid to the six (6) Private Aided Oriental Colleges towards payment of salaries to the existing teaching staff will be released through Commissioner of Collegiate Education, A.P., Hyderabad as per the existing system. The system shall continue even after the above six (6) colleges are brought under the academic control of Sri Venkateswara Vedic University, Tirupati.

4. The Commissioner of Collegiate Education has submitted revised proposal for 70 Teaching posts and 5 Non-Teaching posts at an estimated budgetary requirement of Rs.3.25 crore per annum to the Government for necessary action. The College wise details of Approximate additional Budgetary requirements and number of posts required to filling up of Teaching and Non-Teaching posts in select Oriental Colleges Teaching Sanskrit as main Language and proposed to be affiliated to Sri Venkateswara Vedic University, Tirupati.

5. After careful examination of the entire matter, it is observed that the Grant-in-Aid to the extent of Rs.2.07 Crores towards salaries for 63 (58+5) vacant posts will be released to the following Nine (9) Institutions instead of filling up the vacant posts to enable the managements to appoint required Teaching staff on contract basis for smooth functioning of the said colleges under the administrative control of Sri Venkateswara Vedic University, Tirupati.

1. SVVS College, Hyderabad (TTD Funded)
2. S.V.Oriental College, Tirupathi, Chittoor Dist. (TTD Funded)
3. Dr.KVK Sanskrit College, Guntur.
4. SRRS College, Vemulavada, Karimnagar Dist.
5. SVJV Sanskrit College, Kovvur, West Godavari District.
